

SOCIETY

A woman may have confidence in her husband, but she will call him up at least once every evening he is out, to see if he is having a splendid time.

Finishing touches in a man are as good as in a house, but be sure you have a good foundation.

Miss Mary Giles has been the guest of Miss Clio Toombs for a few days this week.

There is many a good woman with perfectly good eyes who cannot see through her husband.

You cannot make a bad boy any better, by always telling him how bad he is.

Clayton Girl Marries in Oklahoma

Friends of Miss Oleta Bishop will be rather surprised to learn that she was married Saturday of last week to Chet Davidson of Aline, Oklahoma. They were married in Cherokee and, accompanied by six couples of their friends, they motored to Alva where an elaborate dinner was served for them. Miss Leta is well known in Clayton and very popular. Her husband was employed for some time at the Pioneer Garage. They will make their home in Guthrie, Oklahoma. The Citizen congratulates them.

The Baptist Ladies Aid society met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John L. Hill. A pleasant social afternoon was spent, there being no business to transact. The next meeting of the Aid will be with Mrs. C. U. Bridges on next Tuesday afternoon, June 27th. The reason for making the date a week earlier is on account of the Fourth of July coming on the regular date.

The Woman's Club met Wednesday. The Club is reading the 1916 Reader's Digest for discussion and information now and they find it an interesting and profitable course of study. Mrs. Wamsley, president of the Club, says they will resume their regular course of study soon.

The Royal Neighbors held their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at the hall. The attendance was not quite as good as usual on account of the Baptist Aid Society also meeting on the same day.

The afternoon Auction Club met at the home of Mrs. Carl Dunn Thursday of last week. The meeting was a very lively one. Mrs. Earl Messenger held the high score with Mrs. Eklund a close second. Miss Mary and Helen Mansker substituted for Mrs. Fox and Mrs. Wherritt who are out of the city. A dainty luncheon was served on small tables and the tables were filled by Mesdames Eastwood, Morris Herzstein, Wheeler Hill, Claude Barnhart, Eklund, Earl Messenger, Simon Herzstein, John Hill Granville, Savage and Misses Helen and Mary Mansker.

Armstrong-Hensley

Probate Judge Saavedra hasn't the title of the "marry up person," but he can marry 'em just the same. A ceremony took place Tuesday afternoon and Venie Hensley of Seneca and J. Newton Armstrong of Cuates were the contracting parties. They are both well known and highly respected in their respective localities and the Citizen extends congratulation. They will be at home to their friends on their ranch at Cuates.

Mrs. Joseph Harberg is expected next week from Philadelphia to spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. H. Herzstein. Her son, Sidney, who has just completed his school term in the University of Pennsylvania, where he is taking a medical course will accompany her.

Storm

E. O. Talbot, manager of the telephone exchange at Wanette, was in the city Monday looking after business matters and trying to get some of the lines on his route straightened out as they had been very badly disordered by the recent storm.

E. E. Hamm purchased a Studebaker car the latter part of last week from the Central Garage.

STEAD

and what happened

Still we have plenty of rain and crops look fine and making rapid progress.

Mrs. W. H. Lindsey and sons, Robert and David came in Tuesday from Louisiana, where Mrs. Lindsey has been teaching the past winter.

THOMAS

Rain! Rain! Yes plenty of it, everything looking fine.

T. W. Schultz happened to mishap one day last week, by having his ankle sprained. He and his son Fred were necking two steers together and one became unruly and they threw it down. In the struggle Mr. Schultz was injured.

Misses Cecil and Goldie Long have company consisting of their two cousins from Kansas, named McReynolds.

Quite a crowd of Thomasites attended closing exercises at Tate Saturday night, and report a fine time. Also had a pie supper which netted something like $50.00. It was the close of Miss Jewel Stephenson's school.

The building of the Baptist church at this place is delayed on the account of land title.

Martin Zogg lost a fine horse last week, the value of which was something like $400.00.

There will be no Sunday school at Thomas next Sunday as the Thomasites have been invited to the Snyder Children's day exercises, the invitation being accepted.

J. A. Arnhart had the misfortune to lose a calf one night last week, caused by a horse kicking it.

Loris Bullard is having about 30 acres of sod broke on his homestead. Chas. Morgan is doing the work.

Brother Graham preached for us Sunday morning and at night to a large crowd. Come again you are always welcome at our meetings.

Loris Bullard has come in possession of a four burner oil stove. This doesn't look like batching to Clod Hopper.

Clod Hopper.

SEDAN

Mr. Beatty the County Farm Agent, for Union county, was a Sedan community visitor the first of last week.

The Holiness converts will be baptized next Sunday at Chinaberry Grove.

Messrs. and Mesdames, Chas. Lewis and G. W. Cole, were Clayton visitors Tuesday of last week.

Messrs. and Mesdames A. B. Seely and Ralph E. Cole were Sunday guests at the C. C. Hodges home.

Rev. Brandstetter and Miss Hilda Brandstetter were Sunday dinner guests at the A. B. Christerson home.

Chas. Lewis, who motored from Moline, Kansas, with his family, has purchased the 320 acre homestead farm of G. W. Cole at Sedan. They will reside back of the church until they can build. We welcome them to the community while we also regret the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Cole. Dr. J. S. Carrington of Thomas was a Sedan visitor, the first of the week.

The Holiness meetings continue with much interest at the school house. There having been a number of conversions.

Raymond Means returned Monday from southwest Missouri, where he has been since December, attending school.

Last Tuesday night a very pleasant party was enjoyed by all the young people of the neighborhood at the J. L. Veatch home. The occasion being the fifteenth birthday of their son Floyd.

On Monday night of this week a very pleasant surprise party was given by the young people on Mr. Raymond Means to welcome him on his return home.

"Cyco."

OTTO

We are having fair weather since Sunday, and hope to not have any more hail.

Sunday school was well attended, but the singing, Sunday evening, was not attended on account of the rain.

Messrs Roy Howard, and Lee McCook had the misfortune of losing two of their best horses by the severe lightning, Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hatchett are leaving New Mexico for their claim in Colorado.

The "Tacky Party" was well attended and one of the most enjoyed parties of the season. There were about 100 present. Mr. Roy Howard and Miss Alta Oliver being the lucky couple to win the prize and to be joined in the "Holy Bonds of Matrimony."

HUSBAND RESCUED
DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good. I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of wonderful success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.
